Humility in Life and Honesty in Prayer

This week I attended the funeral of my late great uncle who died at the age of 101. I knew Uncle David as a hard working farmer; and have many happy memories of spending time with him at the farm, jumping on and off hay-bales, helping to milk the cows, collect in the eggs and watching him mow the lawn and the lawns of his neighbours with his ride-on mower. It wasn't until I listened to his eulogy read at the funeral service that I had any idea of his many achievements; including award winning carpentry, training in a second career in engineering after he retired in order that he could support his son in law who could not continue with his business because of a life limiting illness. David was the church warden for many years, served on the parish council, ran a repair shop from his garage for the local neighbourhood, fought in two world wars and was awarded the 'Legion Honour', the highest French order of merit, both military and civil from his time in Guernsey.

His was a life both of service, but equally humility.

We often struggle with eulogies in the context of the liturgical celebration of a requiem Mass and for some they can be overwhelming and at times excessive: but alongside our celebration of a life is also a recognition that we need to pray for the deceased and the forgiveness of their sins as we are all sinners and as the psalmist says 'God is no respecter of personages' (those who hold rank or title) and will judge us all as equals on that final day. What God requires of us is that we approach Him in our sinfulness and in all humility, both within life and into death.

In our Gospel reading Jesus compares a Pharisee and a tax collector at prayer. The Pharisee is not only self-congratulatory, but prays to himself rather than to God. He compares himself to those who struggle with life and in his own way prays to the detriment of the poor man. It was Ghandi who famously said 'It has always been a mystery to me how men feel themselves honoured by the humiliation of their fellow human beings'. And sadly we experience this in our society today. And yet we read that the prayer of the humble man is the prayer that will pierce the clouds. The tax collector goes home justified while the Pharisee does not. The tax collector gets much more than he asked for: Mercy but is now Justified. In the judgement of Jesus everything is upside down. A life celebrated become a life that is in need of prayer. I am reminded of the litany of humility, which begins...

From the desire of being esteemed, Deliver me O Jesus
From the desire of being loved, Deliver me O Jesus
From the desire of being extolled, Deliver me O Jesus
From the desire of being honoured, Deliver me O Jesus
From the desire of being praised, Deliver me O Jesus
From the desire of being preferred to others, Deliver me O Jesus...

Prayers

Adoration.

Bishop Philip invited us all last week in his pastoral letter to put the Eucharist at the centre of our faith. One of the ways he encouraged us to do this was to try and spend just half an hour in front of the Blessed Sacrament a week.

Perhaps you have been thinking on this, and feel called to try?

Please contact Anna on 07956 379 542 if you feel able to join Adoration during the week in St Edmund's.

The gaps we need filling most are:

Monday 12 - 5pm, Wednesday 2-6.30pm, Thursday 4.30-5.30pm Friday 12 - 2pm

Parish Rosary Group. If you would like to join an in-person rosary group please follow the QR code. Thank you to those who have shown interest, Tuesday evenings seems a popular choice so far. Please get in touch if you also would be interested!

"Never will anyone who says his Rosary every day be led astray. This is a statement that I would gladly sign with my blood."

- St. Louis de Montfort

Please remember especially in your prayers

Laneisha Vaz, Sr Maria Innocenta, Jack, Jannette and Robert Keith, Margaret Hicks, Margaret Murray, Mary Mullen, Abi, John, Mary O'Reilly, Valerie, Christopher Browne, Oliver, Carmen Escorcio, Simon, Bernadette, Sue, Clifford Cross, Kelly, Val Perry, Peter Scott, Maro P and all in the Parish who are ill, dying, undergoing treatment or are experiencing distress.

Sacraments

Please keep in your prayers all those who are due to be baptised this month Cadence Castillo, Oliver Alexandru, Joshua and Oliver Gough, Eleanor Bradley, Natalia Tunczyk, Mark and Lanene Rosal and Valentina Da Silva. We pray for them and their families as they enter the faith!

First Holy Communion Update. We have not begun registering for the course, but any parents wishing to discuss the course requirements are invited to come to St Edmund's Hall on Tuesday 25th October, 3-5pm. This is not registration but an opportunity to talk to our lead catechist and learn more about the programme. You must bring a copy of your child's baptism certificate with you.

The official registrations will be 9am, 10am, 11am masses on 6th, 20th and 27th November in St Edmund's. This year's programme is heavily oversubscribed, which means that the team must make a careful decision once they have reviewed all applications.

Volunteers needed!

Baptism Preparation Team Members. Baptism is the first and most important sacrament that our children will receive. We need more hands-on deck. You will be part of a team & given training. Please contact Tina or the Office for more info.

Parish Office Admin Assistant. The Parish Office is in need of a volunteer to help with the day to day running of the office. The individual will be comfortable answering phones, dealing with parishioners coming to the door and offering support in simple administrative areas. Preferably 3 days a week, hours and days flexible. Please contact Anna in the office to discuss.

Preparing Meals. Prior to Covid the Parish had a small rota of volunteers who would occasionally prepare meals for Parish Groups, it would be great to get this going again. If you might be able to help please contact Anna in the Office to discuss.

What's going on?

The St Vincent De Paul Society (SVP), has launched a Cost of Living Support Fund to help struggling families and individuals who need support as the cost of living crisis deepens threatening millions with poverty.

As winter approaches, people on little to no income will be hit the hardest. With your help our volunteers can continue to reach out to individuals and families who need us the most. Your donation to our Cost of Living Support Fund will help bring hope and show someone cares during this difficult time.

For those wishing to donate to the fund, or those who may need to access the support fund, please see the SVP website for more details. https://www.svp.org.uk/

What's going on?

The 24th October will mark eight months from the invasion of Ukraine. Please bring a candle to a painted bench near the corner of Winn Road, The Avenue, and stand in silence, holding in the Light not only Ukraine, but ALL the regions of the world where war is currently raging. There are so many conflicts, Friends. The vigil will last from about 6pm till 6.30pm

There have now been over ten million abortions in Great Britain since the Abortion Act was passed 55 years ago, on 27th October 1967. On this terrible anniversary please pray and fast for the end of abortion in this country. On Thursday 27th October please go to Mass, say an extra Rosary and give up some food for the day if you are able. Please pray for all those women seeking abortion that they may be better supported by their communities.

Southampton Council of Faiths would like to invite you to celebrate our 20th anniversary on Sunday 20th November at the Vedic Temple, Radcliffe Rd, Southampton. Doors open at 6.30. 7.00 Welcome from the Chair; 7.10 Entertainment from different faith groups; 8.00 Buffet meal; 9.30 Finish Please go to book your free tickets.

Last week was the 20th Baby Loss Awareness Week. Please be assured that as a Parish we pray for all those children, parents and families affected, and we are here should you need some support. Talking about pregnancy and baby loss is a big step in raising awareness and helping people access the support available. Please see https://babyloss-awareness.org/ for more resources and signposting to support.

Journey in Faith / RCIA Course For anyone looking to find out more about the Catholic Faith - come along and ask your questions, find out what the church teaches and what it means to live as a Catholic. This group also offers preparation for adult (18+) Baptism, Confirmation or Reception as a Catholic. Meetings are Wednesday evenings at 7:30pm in St Edmund's Hall. No need to register, just turn up!

CAFOD Soup Lunch. You are invited to a soup lunch in St Edmund's Hall on Tuesday, 25th October, starting at 11.30am. Jointly organised by our church & Christ the King. Offers of help are greatly welcomed. Please contact Deirdre Fairman at fairmans@ntlworld.com if you can help. Hope to see you there, supporting our brothers and sisters in East Africa. All donations given will go towards The Family Fast Day appeal.

Candles for Home Care. Chris McDaid, a parishioner, will be selling candles of varying sizes and designs to raise money for the Catholic Home Care service. She will be displaying these candles at the 6.15pm Mass in St Joseph's on the 19th November, please bring cash with you ready to buy!

Seeker Night, 7-9pm, Fareham Friday 4th November. Our monthly Seeker Night is for all those who are discerning their path in life and seeking the will of the Lord. The evening follows a very simple pattern - a meal, a time of discussion and we close with prayer and Adoration.

Sometimes our vocation is not always obvious to us, and it's important to seek opportunities to recognise what our life's mission is to be. That's where discernment comes in.

Discernment is being aware and reflective of your heart, to see how God is moving and leading you.

Recently Pope Francis said 'Discernment involves hard work. According to the Bible, we do not find set before us the life we are to live. God invites us to evaluate and choose. He created us to be free and wants us to exercise our freedom. Therefore, discerning is demanding'.

"Doing penance for one's sins is a first step towards obtaining forgiveness and winning eternal salvation. That is the clear and explicit teaching of Christ, and no one can fail to see how justified and how right the Catholic Church has always been in constantly insisting on this. She is the spokesman for her divine Redeemer. No individual Christian can grow in perfection, nor can Christianity gain in vigour, except it be on the basis of penance."

-St John XXIII, Paenitentiam Agere, 1
