The Power of Powerlessness

This Sunday's readings focus on 'power': We could ask ourselves the questions: what is power? why do people seek it? and for what gain? Sadly, as the letter from James so succinctly describes, the struggle for power often causes disharmony, jealousy, infighting and division. Many of us will have experienced this in our work places, families or communities. The root cause is often tied up with feelings of inadequacy, incompetence, low self esteem. What may appear to be powerful from the outside is often powerless.

Jesus was aware that as He was walking with His disciples through Galilee they were competing amongst each other as to who was the greatest. To seek power is to focus on the 'I' the middle letter of sin. In one of the first scriptural accounts in salvation history our father Adam falls into that trap. The serpent tempts him with the words 'if you eat of the tree of knowledge which God has forbidden you will become greater than God Himself'. Adam was striving for power. Every time we focus on ourselves it is likely that we are putting down another.

There are numerous examples of reverse power, in other words humility, which are there to guide us. Our Holy Father is called the servant of the servants of God; and Pope Francis did not refer to himself when he was appointed one as the chosen one or anything special, he simply said and recognised that he was a sinner. The Benedictines in their rule or life do not have a hierarchy of experience or rank. The most senior in the community is the monk or brother who joined first. If a Bishop or academic or a dignitary applied to join the monastery they would take their place according to the day that they entered. The seventh chapter of the rule of St Benedict instructs us how to reach the greatest height of humility 'we must erect the ladder which appeared to Jacob in his dream by means of which angels were shown to him ascending and descending ..we descend by pride and ascend by humility. The erected ladder is our life in this present world, which if the heart is humble, is by the Lord lifted up to Heaven. The body and soul are the two sides of the ladder and into these sides the divine calling has inserted various degrees of humiliate discipline which we must mount'. Wise counsel.

Ronald Rolheiser describes different types of power: military power, muscle power, psychological power. He asks us to imagine four persons in a room: a powerful dictator (brutal power), a gifted athlete (physical prowess), a rock star (soulful energy), a newborn baby laying in a crib (powerless power). And yet, it is the baby that will touch us, and transform a room and hearts by his or her helplessness and dependence.

Jesus was that helpless baby who died powerless hanging on a cross who has manifested power that has changed and is continuing to change millions of hearts and lives.

As Jesus was trying to teach His disciples a lesson in humility He took a child in His arms and said 'Anyone who welcomes one of these little children in My name welcomes Me'.

I have just returned from a week's holiday with my family: four generations with ages ranging from 7 months to 90 years of age. Every family member had stories to tell, achievements to share but the person who was the main focus of the week was 7 month old Tabitha who captured hearts and overpowered us by her dependence, innocence and vulnerability.

We have so much to learn in our complex lives and world where we strive to achieve and be noticed. 'Everyone that exalts himself shall be humbled and everyone who humbled himself will be exalted!' (Luke 14:11).

St Anne's is an outstanding 11-18 state funded Catholic school for girls with a mixed sixth form in the heart of Southampton, with excellent transport links to all points of the compass. Places are open to all families seeking a school with a strong Catholic ethos.

The school has been placed in the top 10% of all schools nationally in recent years for the exceptional level of progress achieved by students of all abilities, and strong academic achievement at GCSE and A Level consistently places St Anne's as one of the highest performing school in Hampshire.

Parents may book a time slot to visit us on Wednesday 29th September 2021, during our Open Morning (9.00 - 11.00am) and/or during our Open Evening (6.00 - 8.00pm)

As a school we are conscious that although national Covid-19 restrictions have been lifted, there are still cases within the community and many people will still be cautious about gathering in larger numbers or visiting unfamiliar places. Therefore, unlike previous years, we will be asking families to book a time slot to visit for whichever open event they choose to attend to manage the flow of visitors to the site and ensure a safe and comfortable experience for all.

Bookings can be made via the links which can be found on our website: www.st-annes.uk.com and below:

Open morning (9-11am) www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/169787134891

Open Evening (6-8pm) www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/169707272019

Open mornings give parents the opportunity to see the school on a normal working day and talk to their student guides as they tour the school. Open evening includes the opportunity to tour the whole site, take part in activities in the specialist areas and talk to subject specialists and student leaders.

We look forward to seeing you at St Anne's in late September when you can see our school in action and find out why St Anne's is hard to beat! St Anne's Catholic School

Help needed to support Afghan evacuees: The government is asking UK local authorities to help evacuees, many of whom have been working for the British Armed Forces, to resettle in the UK. So, they are now looking for homes in which families can be housed and start to build a new life in Southampton.

Earlier this week, the Leader of Southampton City Council, made a call to private landlords in the city who may have affordable three or four-bedroom family homes available to rent, and would like to help, to get in touch.

They have set up a special email address for interested landlords to contact them. And for any members of the public who would like to show their support, cash donations (instead clothes or other items please) are being accepted via the City Life Church Southampton and Southampton Action JustGiving pages.
